Asian impresario TALVIN SINGH's new CHILLY MEDIA imprint brings to the UK Tanzanian/Zürich-based ragga / hip-hop diva NAMUSOKE with her highly accomplished debut album that boast a range of influences from hip-hop and reggae/ragga to soul.

March 2007 will see the release of the album, which has been produced by London-based producer THE SEA, well known for producing the cream of UK-hip-hop including RODNEY P's album The Future and the forthcoming album from DYNAMITE MC of REPRAZENT.

NAMUSOKE's adventurous and accessible production delivers some truly refreshing flavas, mixing classic ragga and hip-hop influences with cutting edge urban sounds, over which Namusoke's charismatic and alluring voice effortlessly flow.

In addition, for the vinyl junkies there's a 12" EP containing 6 tracks from the album including 'Good Body Girls' featuring the godfather of UK Hip-Hop RODNEY P, 'Fire and Burn' with

MILLION DAN and Swiss Hip-Hop crew LE DÉCLIQUE guesting on the track 'Night Riders'

Before coming to the UK, NAMUSOKE had released two singles; "Murder Time" in 2003 and "Survive" (along with a promo video) in 2004, both on the German BUBACK label. On the live front she has performed consistently throughout 2005 at various European venues including a highly successful performance at the prestigious PALEO FESTIVAL in Switzerland. With a growing fanbase and having built a name for herself around the European urban music scene this unique urban artist with her distinctive vocal style comes to the UK bringing her own brand of magic.
