This autumn, witness the arrival of a true force in contemporary entertainment with the multi-talented Brooklyn based artist TahMac arriving from the USA with an arsenal of the freshest tracks destined to throw this side of the Atlantic into a frenzy.

The debut single Time of My Life is taken from Tah's much-anticipated album Welcome 2 TahLand. It is an uplifting feel-good cut that's oozing with finesse and is a sure taste of what's to come laying a solid foundation for Tah's inevitable UK chart invasion. The album is a full-length jewel that features a veritable 'A List' of old school flair and rising talent. Mutya Buena lends her mellifluous style, and C.A.S.H (a.k.a Ceelo Green from Gnarls Barkley) steps up to the mark bringing Welcome 2 Tahland into a new realm of pop excellence.

Tah is as comfortable behind the faders as he is in front of an audience and his ten years of experience has given him great vision and insight into getting the very best out of collaborations with high profile artists. His work with Erick Sermon, Javine, Ciara, Onyx, Leona Lewis, Redman, Aretha Franklin and The Charlatans has all proved to be highly successful projects.

Often describing his music as a 'Global Sound,' he refuses to be pigeon-holed and relishes in his widespread love of the world of music. With this latest body of work Tah feels he has finally crafted a sound that is uniquely his own.
