'Tremendous potential' - ForFolksSake.com

"Sounds fantastic" - John Kennedy - XFM

Tipped as one of John Kennedy's bands for 2013, Apples & Eve release their new single L'Homme (the man) as a follow up to their Dionysus EP that saw strong support from Tom Robinson's Fresh on The Net along with plays from 6 Music's Chris Hawkins, Nemone & Amazing Radio's Paul Lester.

The single, whose title is loosely inspired from the Billie Holiday classic My Man (Mon Homme), sees the band's front person Eva Rose sing of 'lost dreams from one's youth' in a most poignant manner. Musicianship on the record is first class with subtle slide guitar motifs interweaving between melodic violin lines and a fingerpicking guitar on this most haunting of compositions.

The band's previous release, Dionysus, was a 4 track EP with hand printed artwork and picked up some great reviews from R2 Mag, ForFolksSake.com, Trebuchet, Fatea, Supajam and many others. Student Radio support has been strong too with many stations throughout the SRA network requesting interviews from the charismatic Eva Rose.

This Brighton 5 piece began when multi-instrumentalist Eva Rose (vocals, guitar, accordion) met now drummer Francine Perry at University. Next Graeme Ross, who has played with the likes of Laura Marling, Peggy Sue, & James Morrison, joined on bass along with fiddle player Jonas Aaron, previously from Brighton band Not Now Bernard. Recently, since the Dionysus EP, the line-up has grown with the addition of Gar Rock on lead/slide/ebow guitar.

Apples & Eve's music has been influenced by a diverse range of artists including Grizzly Bear, tUnE-YaRdS, Beirut, Nick Drake, Laura Marling, Grimes & Paul Simon, all of which have helped to create their unique and distinctive sound.

L'Homme (the man) was mixed and engineered at Brighton's Metway Studios by award winning producer Al Scott (The Levellers, The Miserable Rich, Oysterband, Asian Dub Foundation) with the single's artwork created by Georgie Rock.
